

I am concerned about losing reception to the radio station that my family and I currently listen to. It is K-Love, a christian station. We are encouraged each day with what we hear and losing it would definitely affect us.